

Haneol (John) Lee is a Senior at Olympia High School in Olympia, WA. He joined FBLA purely for the candy. But FBLA gave him tools that changed his life. He enjoys speaking to middle school students where he inspires them to follow their dreams. But where did John get his speaking skills? Through FBLA John has learned skills he never imagined, such as public speaking, confidence, passion, dedication, and leadership. John has served as president of his chapter and as the Executive Vice President of Washington FBLA. Furthermore, John has served as the National Western Region Vice President and loved meeting members from all across the nation. John believes that FBLA has given him the possibility to learn and break out from the language barriers he faced when he came to America eight years ago. John now wants to give back to the community that changed his life.
