

Kianna Bolante is a senior at Fife High School and is honored to serve as the WA FBLA 2020-2021 State Parliamentarian. After joining FBLA her freshman year, she has successfully completed all levels of the BAA and all levels of the CSA. She has competed and placed top ten in Website Design, top ten in Publication Design, fourth place in Parliamentary Procedure, and second place in American Enterprise Project at FBLA State Leadership Conferences. In her past years of membership, Kianna has been the WA FBLA State Puget Sound Region Vice President, Vice President of the Columbia Junior High Chapter, and the Activities Coordinator of the Fife High School Chapter. Other than FBLA, Kianna actively participates in a variety of clubs and activities in her community. She is involved in her school's Key Club, National Honor Society, and tennis team. Kianna is also heavily involved with different organizations that revolve around parliamentary procedure such as the Electronic Association of Parliamentarians, the Washington State Association of Parliamentarians where she was recognized in numerous newsletters, and the National Association of Parliamentarians where she works within their Youth Committee to spread awareness about parliamentary authority. In her free time, you can find Kianna baking, reading, or playing the piano. Following high school, Kianna plans on attending a four-year university and major in an engineering field. Throughout her term being a State Officer, Kianna is very excited to connect with members and highlight all the beneficial resources FBLA has to offer to grow their leadership.
