WELCOME FROM SATHVIK NALLAMALLI, STATE PRESIDENT

Welcome back Advisers! We hope you are safe, healthy, and ready to kickstart another amazing year. With Washington FBLA gearing up for a record-breaking year, 2020 can only get better! I know for me, this summer has felt like one of the longest and busiest ones yet, and it's all going to pay off. With still too many unknowns for how things will go, our state officer team is working tirelessly to launch amazing new initiatives. And I say this with immense excitement that the year will be full of hype opportunities! New member-based programs, connection opportunities with business professionals, newly developed resources, and a new vision for social media and communication are all a little sneak peek for what we have planned this year! Stay tuned for more updates from the team and please don't hesitate to reach out to me with any questions (president@wafbla.org) or just to connect your chapter with the state!
